

New Principal & Assistant Principal Academy

Course# 6464

In this academy, participants will have the opportunity to connect and collaborate with a community of leaders to explore the realistic challenges of school leadership and gain practical & useful strategies to enhance leadership capacity. During these 6 sessions, we will focus on prioritizing the demands of the principal position, covering the following topics and more:

1. Principals as culture shapers.
2. Principals as capacity builders.
3. Principals as collaborators.
4. Principals as effective communicators.
5. Principals as instructional leaders.

In addition, consultants from RESA departments, such as special education and curricular specialties, will provide materials and present essential, relevant topics to participants. The course will consider the input of the participants to ensure that the content is relevant to meeting the needs of the group.
